

REEF RELIEF

Match the term with the definition.

- A. Marine Protected Area
- B. No Take Zone
- C. Research Natural Area
- D. Ecological Reserve
- E. Sanctuary Preservation Area
- F. National Wildlife Refuge
- G. Special Use Area
- H. Wildlife Management Area
- I. State Park
- J. National Park

Answer	Definition	Answer	Definition
D	Areas selected to be representative and special ecosystems. To be preserved in a natural condition.	A	An umbrella term for any area on or near the marine environment that has defined protections.
I	An area of land owned and protected by a U.S state due to its natural beauty or historic importance.	C	Area set aside only for research related activities.
G	Area set aside for a specific use such as research, education, restoration, and monitoring.	F	Protected public land set aside to conserve wildlife. Managed by USFWS.
B	An area where the removal of anything is prohibited.	F	An area of natural, historical, or scientific importance set aside and maintained by a national government.
E	Smaller areas where certain activities are restricted and regulated.	H	Lands managed for both recreation and conservation.